

A DAY FOR THE EARTH

LYNDHURST — The New Jersey Meadowlands Commission hosted nearly 200 people at DeKorte Park in Lyndhurst April 22 for its Earth Day 2010 celebration. The day's events included nature walks, green living workshops and crafts for kids. The commission also collected 75 pairs of old sneakers, which will be recycled and used in the production of new running tracks and playground surfaces.

PHOTOS, NEW JERSEY MEADOWLANDS COMMISSION